SPECIAL TO THE REGISTER

The 2010 Charles Gabus Memorial Bike Ride on June 20 was sponsored by the Northwest Rotary to benefit Reach Out and Read, which provides books for parents to encourage reading. On her bicycle is Virginia Stone of Waukee, who works with the Therapeutic Riding program at Lester Park near Granger. From left are Mary Kathleen Verdun, a sophomore at Dowling Catholic High School in West Des Moines; Jamie Krumel, also a sophomore at Dowling Catholic; and Molly Olinger Topf, who is program director at Reach Out and Read Iowa.
